

TIRED OUT!

As this season nearly every one needs to be kept cool and fresh, it is almost every day a prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc. It HAS NO EQUAL and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BUNNELL, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Third-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

WASHINGTON TELEGRAMS.

THE STATESMEN BURIED IN THE CONGRESSIONAL CEMETERY.

An Institution Kept Up By a Church Parish—A List of Those Who There Sleep the Eternal Slumber—Cabinet Change Rumors—Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The Congressional cemetery where the remains of so many distinguished people of National record, and where are found monuments to the memory of many others, is likely to be brought a little more into notice by some improvements going on the city. Massachusetts Avenue and Pennsylvania Avenue are laid out in the plans of the city run just on either side of the cemetery. Massachusetts Avenue is now being paved and made available for driving in that direction, and the new bridge to be erected over the Potomac at the end of Pennsylvania Avenue, just beyond the city limits, makes that avenue more of a thoroughfare than formerly.

So the distinguished dead will not rest in the absolute silence and almost neglect from the general public that has seemed to be the case in former years. This remark should not be construed so as to mean that the grounds themselves are neglected, for the Cemetery association keeps them in good condition, whether the relatives of distinguished dead give them any attention or not. The cemetery is not in any sense a public or National one, as its name would indicate, but is owned and managed by the parish of Christ Episcopal church of this city. It acquired the title of Congressional cemetery from the fact that senators and representatives who died while in the performance of their duties in this city were buried in the graveyard. The first who was buried there was Hon. Uriah Tracy, senator from Connecticut, who died in April, 1807. He had been a major general in the Revolutionary army, and when he died congress appropriated money to place a monument over his remains.

This precedent once established was continued, and from that time until 1861 a monument or cenotaph was placed in this burial ground in memory of every senator or representative who died, whether he was buried there or not. The next distinguished burial was that of Edward Darby, a representative from New Jersey, who died July 28, 1808. Near by his resting place is the lot of the Dear family, who were friends of Washington. Then there is the tomb of Elbridge Gerry, vice president of the United States, who died on his way to the capital to preside over the senate on November 23, 1814, aged seventy years, "thus fulfilling," according to the inscription, "his own memorable injunction, 'it is the duty of every citizen, though he may have but one day to live, to devote that day to the good of his country.'" The monument was erected by congress. Not far off is the grave of Maj. Gen. George Clinton, who was also a vice president, surmounted by a monument which contains a bas relief portrait of the deceased which is said to be an excellent likeness.

As everybody knows there have been no burials of congressmen in this cemetery for some years. Probably the last one was that of Senator Bowen, of West Virginia, who died in 1864, and was buried there. For years congress went on erecting "cenotaphs" in the cemetery to the memory of rulers who died during their term of service, but this practice has been abandoned. These "cenotaphs" were cubes, perhaps four feet each way, surmounted by a round block, which irresistibly reminds you of a boy in a country store. On each was cut the name of the member in whose memory it was erected.

One of the most interesting monuments is that erected to the celebrated Indian Pushmataha, who was a chief of the Choctaw tribe. Quite a number of Indians are buried in this cemetery, but none of the others are marked in so pretentious a style as the celebrated Choctaw.

The body of Sergeant Cross, which was brought back from the frozen north, now rests in the Congressional cemetery, and a monument of black granite has been erected over the grave, which states simply that the deceased was born January 30, 1813, and perished while exploring the Arctic region January 18, 1884.

Appointment Talk.
WASHINGTON, June 30.—Senator M. C. Butler, of South Carolina, is quoted as saying he believes Secretary Lamar will be appointed to the vacancy on the supreme bench, and that Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, will probably succeed Mr. Lamar as secretary of the interior. The Georgia senator denies that he has been offered the place, but it seems to be understood among his friends that he can have it if he desires it.

Senator Colquitt has been strongly identified with the temperance movement in Georgia, and some doubt has been expressed as to the advisability of the president inviting him into the cabinet on that account.

A prominent southern Democrat said yesterday: "It will do Mr. Cleveland no harm in the south to take such a strong temperance man into his cabinet as Mr. Colquitt. The sentiment throughout the south among the best people is in favor of temperance. It might have some effect in New York and other northern states, but I don't believe Mr. Cleveland will pay much attention to that phase of the subject."

Postoffice Changes.
WASHINGTON, June 30.—The following presidential postoffices will be relegated to the fourth class on July 1, the receipts being less than the minimum required for the presidential class: Colorado, Silver Cliff; Idaho, Ketchum; Illinois, Griggsville, Savelock; Iowa, Elkader; Kansas, Carbondale, Fort Leavenworth; Missouri, Wisconsin; Michigan, Grand Lodge, Mosenc, Fowlerville; Missouri, Albany; Montana, White Sulphur Springs; New York, Angelica; Ohio, New Richmond, Waverly; Pennsylvania, Knox, North Clarendon, Foxcastleway; Virginia, Martinsville; Texas, Cisco.

Board of Pension Appeals.
WASHINGTON, June 30.—Secretary Lamar reappointed for one year the following members of the board of pension appeals: George Baber, of Kentucky; John A. Judson, of New York; P. J. Rogers, of New York; R. D. Graham, of North Carolina; S. W. Rittenhouse, of District of Columbia; R. F. Hill, of Michigan.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Elizabethtown, Kentucky, Almost Destroyed By Fire—Other Losses.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., June 30.—A fire broke out in Elliott's drug store here late last night and spread with alarming rapidity, notwithstanding strenuous efforts of the fire department. At one time the flames got beyond the control of the firemen and it was feared the entire town would be destroyed. Building after building was burned, but the firemen worked hard, and, aided by the citizens, succeeded in checking the flames. One-fourth of the business portion of the town was destroyed, causing an aggregate loss of $100,000. The insurance is placed at $80,000. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp in Elliott's drug store.

Caused By a Locomotive Spark.
AURORA, Ill., June 30.—E. R. Allen's warehouse, planing mill and sash factory burned to the ground this morning. The fire was caused by sparks from a locomotive. The ice house of C. Grampp & Co. and several small buildings near by were also consumed. The City Flour mill, two blocks away, caught from sparks from the warehouse and was completely ruined. The total loss is about $30,000, with only $5,000 insurance, and that on the City mill.

A Fifty Thousand Fire Loss.
WEST STEWARTSTOWN, N. H., June 30.—A disastrous fire occurred here at 4:30 this morning, which destroyed a large building owned by E. D. Parker, containing a large furniture establishment, woolen mill, machine shop and carpenter shop. A large amount of lumber was also burned, and it was only by the efforts of the citizens that the business part of the town was saved. The loss is upwards of $50,000; insurance light.

Caused By a Fire Cracker.
JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 30.—A boy lighted a fire cracker in the confectionery store of S. H. Kelly, on Main street, this morning. Exploding, it ignited a quantity of fireworks piled in the window. These exploded and the store took fire. Before the flames were extinguished the building and three others adjoining were damaged so they will have to be rebuilt. The total loss will be $5,000, with a small insurance.

Another Small Blaze.
CHICAGO, June 30.—A special to the Evening Journal from New Holland, Ill., says: The mill and elevator of D. M. Bumer burned this morning with over five thousand bushels of grain, which is fully covered by insurance.

Did Not Represent the Church.
NEW YORK, June 30.—The Tribune's Baltimore special says that Cardinal Gibbons yesterday declared Dr. McGlynn mistaken in supposing that the holy see has ever expressed any intention of sending a nuncio to this country, or that any such intention is entertained. Dr. McGlynn's impression to the contrary may have arisen from the fact that a Catholic prelate once called upon President Cleveland and broached the question of having a papal ambassador at Washington. This prelate was not a representative man in the church and acted on his own responsibility, and without the knowledge or sanction of the church leaders here or abroad.

Fast Steamboat Travel.
CHICAGO, June 30.—Two remarkable achievements by steamboats were reported yesterday. The Susquehanna, which arrived here at 11 o'clock in the morning made the run from Mackinaw City in twenty-two hours, beating the best record by one hour and twenty minutes. The Tigra, which came in Monday night, completed the round trip from Chicago to Buffalo and return in six days and twenty hours, including the time spent in handling cargoes at Buffalo, where she discharged 2,600 tons of grain and merchandise and took on 1,000 tons of back freight. It is the fastest round trip ever made between the two ports.

A Successful Mission.
NEW YORK, June 30.—It is announced that Mr. P. Grace's mission to England on behalf of the Peruvian government has been successful. The holders of the Peruvian debt have signed the agreement suggested by Mr. Grace, whereby a committee of the bondholders will operate the Guano and mineral lands, and control the railroads and water routes and banking privileges of Peru for sixty-six years, only small royalties being reserved by the government. Mr. Grace's valuable concession of the Corro De Pasco mines is not impaired by the arrangements.

Strikers Arrested.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 30.—In connection with the strike of the masons' helpers there have been twelve arrests in all, and the ringleaders are undoubtedly captured. Work continued all day except at one or two places, the contractors getting all the men they required. The Contractors' association held a meeting and passed a resolution to the effect that if the men wished to return to work they must withdraw from the union. The contractors are determined not to be dictated to and the authorities will see that they are protected.

Can Only Be Stopped By Force.
WINNIPEG, Man., June 30.—Rumors are current here that the Dominion government has actually taken steps to prevent the building of the Red river road. The local government, backed by the people, will only be prevented from going to the boundary line by a display of force. The Canadian Pacific is preparing to move workshops to Fort William simultaneously with commencement of work on the Red river.

Cotton Mills Shut Down.
WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 30.—The three large cotton mills at Manville have shut down indefinitely on account of the weavers' strike, and the mill officials have notified all former employees to quit the company's tenements. The operatives, who number 3,000, are mostly French-Canadians and are unorganized.

Guilty of Manslaughter.
LONDON, O., June 30.—Noah Harper, the negro who brutally beat his seven-year-old child near Rosedale April 4 so that it died, has been found guilty of manslaughter. Maud Russell, his paramour, who was jointly indicted with him, still languishes in jail.

THE FIDELITY FAILURE.

A VISIT TO CHICAGO TO INVESTIGATE THE WHEAT DEAL.

The Information Obtained Kept a Found Secret—Statement from the Chicago Board of Trade—The President of the Cincinnati National Bank Resigns.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—Messrs. Trenholm, Bruce and Kittredge paid a flying visit to Chicago to investigate the wheat deal. What information these gentlemen did gain is treasured among their professional secrets, except that, as intimated, they learned what became of a large amount of money that disappeared from the Fidelity prior to the failure.

In reply to a communication from Col. Maxwell George F. Stone, secretary of the Chicago board of trade, says substantially that their board acted under an emergency rule of the board and made no new one, and that they did it in the interest of general business. Indeed, they did not go so far as the rule permitted. The rule allowed them to make all places of storage regular from which delivery could be made for shipment at regular warehouse rates. They required that such delivery should be made through a permanently regular elevator. In a word, they made the cars of wheat appendages of the elevators.

The decision of the Federal courts have gone so far as to declare directors of banks trustees for the benefit of stockholders, depositors and creditors, and that they are personally liable for frauds and losses resulting from gross neglect. The president particularly is required to know all the books can tell him.

Those who are to have in charge the insolvent estates of the bank, of Harper, and of Harper & Co., are preparing to take charge. Maj. H. P. Lloyd, the trustee of Harper's estate, is making his bond for $100,000. J. H. Stewart, general manager of the C. W. & B., has not yet decided to accept the trusteeship of the Harper & Co. estate, as he fears he will not have enough spare time to attend to it.

Michael McGuire has begun suit against Briggs Swift and all the directors of the Fidelity, including Messrs. Pogue and Kineon, for $1,519.58, which he deposited a little before 3 p. m. on the day preceding the crash.

District Attorney Burnett, Receiver Armstrong and others concerned are hard at work on matters at the bank.

The prisoners, Harper and Hopkins, passed another night in jail, and apparently have a prospect of passing many more there, as there seems to be no effort to give bail.

Bank President Resigns.
CINCINNATI, June 30.—At a meeting of the directors of the Cincinnati National bank this morning, Joseph F. Larkin resigned his position as president and director of the bank. Frank Alter, the well-known banker and merchant, was then unanimously elected to fill his place, and will immediately assume his new duties.

"The reason for Mr. Larkin's resignation," said Mr. Alter to an Evening Post reporter, "is that he is in very poor health, and the strain of the past two weeks incident to the failure of the Fidelity bank and the consequent financial crisis, has been too much for him, and he decided to resign." Mr. Alter will give to the bank the benefit of his long experience as a business man and sufficient capital to insure the tidying over of one of the greatest crises in the banking history of Cincinnati.

SURRENDERED.

The Renegade Apaches Again Plead for Mercy.

SAN CARLOS, Ariz., June 30.—The renegade Apaches have given themselves up. After two weeks of steady chasing the hostiles began to scatter and made for the reservation, narrowly escaping death or capture four different times. Seeing they could not escape they sent one of their number to plead for terms of surrender. Gen. Miles, being at San Carlos in person, notified them that he would accept their unconditional surrender, nothing less. Finding it next to impossible to escape they surrendered with a plea for mercy.

During the raid the troops followed the hostiles forty-five miles over the roughest mountains in Southern Arizona, through intense heat, with no water. It was the sharpest, quickest and most emphatic campaign ever made against these Indians. In crossing the San Pedro valley the hostiles traveled nearly fifteen miles on tip-toe to hide the trail, but the Indian boy, Eaton, a graduate of Hampton school, held the trail. Only two citizens were killed, and but little stock was stolen.

Barbed Wire Injunction Refused.
ST. LOUIS, June 30.—The Washburn-Moen barbed wire company sustained a serious reverse in the United States circuit court yesterday. The company recently brought suit against the Freeman wire company on the ground of infringement of patent which the Washburn-Moen company had purchased from the Iowa barbed wire company and known as the Burnell patent. The Washburn-Moen company and the Iowa barbed wire company entered into a conspiracy to test the Burnell patent in the courts. When these facts, based on affidavits, were brought before Judge Thayer, he refused the injunction. There were half a dozen prominent attorneys from New York and Chicago present.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 30.—A man named Hobbs shot and fatally wounded Deputy Sheriff Green, of Hancock county, who attempted to arrest him for shooting a man at Sneedville. Green then shot and killed Hobbs.

Pan-Handle Robbery Cases.
PITTSBURG, June 30.—The grand jury again took up the Pan-Handle railway robbery cases left over from last term, and returned true bills for larceny and receiving stolen goods against eighteen employees of the road.

Fatal Fire-Cracker.
NEWARK, N. J., June 30.—Mrs. Johanna Fleissinger, sixty-nine years of age, was fatally burned about the back and limbs last night by the explosion of a fire-cracker which some boys had thrown beneath her dress.

YELLOW FEVER SPREADING.

Eight New Cases of the Dread Disease During the Past Three Days.

NEW ORLEANS, June 30.—Some five hundred hospital tents, belonging to the government and stored here, have been shipped to Florida for use by refugees from Key West. A camp for the unacclimated, it is understood, is to be established at Edgewood Key, under the charge of experienced yellow fever doctors of this city. Information has been received that eight additional cases of yellow fever developed during the past three days, making evident and rapid spread of the disease and giving cause for most serious apprehension.

Among those taken sick are Capt. Milinovich, master of the Austrian ship Stobadnia, who has been detained at Key West settling claims against his vessel, recently wrecked on the reef; Judge Fipps, chief inspector of customs, who has resided here almost a year; Stephen McKillup, a merchant of several years' residence; J. H. Clayton, a clerk at Mallory's steamship office, recently from New Orleans; Sergeant MoNamara, wife and child, in charge of and living at the United States barracks. All these cases have developed in different parts of the island, showing conclusively that the disease is now beyond the control of the health authorities and is no longer confined to the labor classes. The controversy over the character of the prevailing disease continues. There is no question that the present disease differs somewhat in character from the yellow fever which has raged before, being more fatal, the record showing that out of forty-six cases nineteen have died.

The Elks Playing Base Ball.

NEW YORK, June 30.—A game of base ball was played in Paterson between the Paterson and New York lodges of Elks. The players were dressed in costumes. A ballet girl pitched. The catcher was a pirate with a bird cage over his head. Sinbad, the sailor, guarded the third base, and a fat clown was short stop. A Turk, carrying a parasol, tried to stop the balls in center field. The several hundred spectators were served with beer, milk and soda free. A hack carried the players from the home plate to the bar, distant fifty feet, each time there was a run. The band played to celebrate base hits, and when one of the players made a home run the base drummer split the head of his instrument. A fresh umpire had to make his escape at the end of each inning. A giant fire cracker was fired off each time the batter struck a ball. If a runner was long on a base beer was carried out to him. Toward the end of the game the players got tired and were carried from base to base in hacks. When darkness stopped the game the score stood somewhere in the neighborhood of fifty to sixty. The exact figures could not be obtained, as the scorer, who had taken beer with each run, was paralyzed. But nobody cared who beat. The Elks went out for an afternoon's fun and got it.

A Battle Under Water.

WACO, Tex., June 30.—A fight took place last night in the Brazos river between Constable Lee Jenkins, of the Waco prison, and Bill Davis, alias Jim Williams, a mulatto of herculean build, an escaped convict. Deputy Sheriff Dan Ford and Constable Lee Jenkins went to the negro's hiding place, in East Waco, and attempted to take him prisoner there, but he made a dash past the officers and ran to the river. When the negro leaped from the bank, the constable followed; they then locked and went down into the mud together, the negro stabbing him with the energy of despair, using a big butcher knife, and the constable shooting. The revolver was submerged, and its sound was drowned, but it did its work well, as the negro bows were pierced and his back bone broken by the bullets. Constable Jenkins is seriously cut in three places.

Successful Jail Delivery.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 30.—A special from Blackfoot, Idaho, says that Henry Nickerson, who was confined in jail there for horse stealing, was visited by his wife last night, and with a revolver which she furnished him with overpowered the guard and locked him in a cell. The pair then liberated Woods and Williams, two murderers under sentence of death, and another horse thief. The party then locked up the rest of the watchmen and escaped to the outside, where horses were awaiting them. Woods, who weighs 250 pounds, would not trust to the course, and took to the brush on foot. The others escaped on horseback. At last accounts Woods had been recaptured, and a sheriff's posse was in pursuit of the others. As the criminals are armed a desperate fight is likely.

Will McGlynn Join the Knights.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—General Secretary Litchman, of the Knights of Labor, in reference to the printed statement that Dr. McGlynn was to become a knight, and contest with Mr. Powderly for the general master workmanship, said yesterday that he knew nothing about the matter excepting what he had read in the newspapers. Dr. McGlynn, he was sure, would be a welcome addition to the ranks of the order, but as for the statement that he would oppose Mr. Powderly for the leadership, that was the work of a vivid imagination. Dr. McGlynn would have to be a member for two years before he would be qualified to sit in the general assembly. The next election takes place in October of this year, when the general assembly meets.

THE IRON SITUATION.

The Importation of Foreign Material Into This Country Growing Serious.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—Prominent iron statisticians here state that the most serious aspect of the iron situation, is the large importation into this country of foreign materials coming principally from Great Britain. The Iron and Steel association is of the opinion that the importation in April, amounting to over 204,000 tons, will be exceeded by those of May.

The Connellsville coke strike, causing so many metal producing establishments to close down, has furnished the foreigners an opportunity to increase their importations and should the mills in Pittsburgh, as now threatened, be closed by reason of a strike, it is declared that the opportunities will be still further increased.

THURSDAY EVE. JUNE 30, 1887.

The Democrats of Bracken are organizing rallying committees in every precinct.

THERE has been enough rowin' going on in Rowan, and that county ought to have a rest.

The Prohibitionists of Fayette County have nominated J. C. Woodward for the Legislature.

HON. HIRAM G. BARBOUR has announced himself as a Republican candidate for Representative from Clark County.

GENERAL BUCKNER will speak at Augusta, July 4th, at 8 o'clock in the evening, and at Brooksville the next afternoon—July 5th.

"STRANGE but nevertheless true." A "renegade" Democrat heads the Republican State ticket this year. What are the "true-blues" going to do about it?

THE Government officers are trying to learn where a large part of the Fidelity Bank's funds went. Probably that fellow Harper gave the money to some of Cincinnati's poor widows and orphans.

COLONEL A. M. SPOPE is announced to speak at Carlisle next Saturday afternoon in the interest of the Republican State ticket. It will take a deal more than the Colonel's eloquence to swerve the sterling Democracy of Nicholas.

It is a fact not generally known that Colonel Bradley, the Republican nominee for Governor, was a Democrat for years after the war. He was Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Garrard County until 1868 or 1870.

HON. FRANK DAVIS, of New Richmond, has "cornered" the Democratic nomination for Judge in the Brown—Clermont district. The convention will be held at Georgetown to-day, and Davis' nomination is considered a foregone conclusion.

THIRTY Storekeepers and Gaugers have been "laid off" in the Louisville district. The shutting down of the distilleries has caused the suspension. Nothing for the "boys" to do, and under a Democratic administration the laborer has to earn his wages.

JOHN M. CAMPBELL, in a card in the Carlisle Mercury this week, gives his reasons for declining the postoffice at that place. The salary is $1,000, and he found after calculating all expenses for office rent, assistant &c., he would have but $150 left for the support of his family.

THE Labor Record, of Louisville, charged Senator Bryan, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, with having supported the law under which Kentucky convicts are worked outside of the prison walls. The Record evidently didn't know what it was talking about. Senator Bryan was asked about the matter recently, and in his reply said:

"The statement is absurd. The law under which convicts are worked outside of the penitentiary in Kentucky was approved in April, 1880, while I was not elected to the Legislature until 1885. Hence, I could not possibly have voted for it. Besides that, I am earnestly opposed to convict labor, and it was my pleasure to report the bill at the last session of the Legislature to keep the convicts out of the mines. The Labor Record evidently had some bad information when it attacked me upon this score."

Spelling Simplified.

The initial number of "spelling," the official organ of the Spelling Reform Association, has been received. It is published at Boston, and its object is to simplify the present method of English spelling. In explaining the importance of this move, the editor says:

"Spelling confronts us early. The child leaves the cradle to wrestle with its difficulties, and the more he learns and does in the world, the more he has to spell, the more he is spell about. If he remains obscure, perhaps because spelling choked his early hopes and efforts, he can not escape spelling. If he achieves fame, he sets in motion thousands of pens and presses which will keep spelling about him long after he is dead. In any case, he must spell to the day of his death, and his survivors have then to spell his epitaph, and to read the proofs to see that it is spelled correctly. Not a book, not a newspaper, not a letter, not a sign, not a name, but bring up spelling. Next to speech itself—more than speech in the importance of matter communicated; for what men speak is mostly trivial—spelling is the great means of communication among mankind. The English-speaking race communicates more, and has more to communicate, than the rest of mankind. It communicates by means of English spelling. And English spelling is the worst there is."

It will be many a day before such a reform is brought about, although such distinguished scholars as David Swing, David Dudley Field, W. D. Whitney, Francis J. Child and others are in favor of it.

Stock and Crops.

The wheat crop in the vicinity of Hillsboro, Ky., will not pan out as well as expected.

In portions of Fleming County but little tobacco has been set out, owing to the low prices of a few months ago.

The fastest heat made in a race to harness this season is 2:17, by the pacer, L. C. Lee, at Denver, Col., May 24th.

The American Derby, at Chicago, was won by D. J. McCarthy's C. H. Todd. There were fourteen started. The purse amounted to $13,940.

The tobacco boom has created a sensation among farmers, and it is more than probable that a fair crop will be raised in this county, says the Mt. Olivet Tribune. The largest and best corn crop in many years is growing, the wheat crop is large and fine, there is a full crop of vegetables of all kinds, the county is well supplied with cattle, sheep and hogs, and the hay yield will be simply immense. The outlook is decidedly encouraging.

Ten Broeck, one of the greatest race horses ever foaled, died this week at the home of his owner, Nantura stock farm, in Woodford County, Ky., of paralysis. He was the property of Frank B. Harper, and has been ever since he was three years old. Mr. Harper was once asked by a man who had the money to spend if $75,000 would be any inducement to part with him. He replied, "Ten Broeck is not for sale."

Pithy Points from Washington.

Had it not been for whisky Marshal Whitaker, of Georgetown, O., would be alive to-day.

Had it not been for rum Marshal Whitaker's wife and children would not to-day be without husband and father.

Had it not been for liquor Marshal Whitaker's wife and children would not to-day be mourning for him whom they never more shall see.

Had it not been for the devilish thing of strong-drink Marshal Whitaker would to-day be in health and strength, instead of in his coffin.

Whisky nerves men's arms to assassinate, no matter whether they obtain it at a drug-store, grocery or saloon; and men who sell it are responsible for the consequence, and should be so held.

MEMBERS of Canton Maysville No. 2, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet in their hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock sharp.

G. M. D.

Walking down Broadway is very pleasant when you feel well, and T—K— never felt better than when his friend asked him how he got over that severe cough of his so speedily. "Ah, my boy," said T—, "G. M. D. did it!" And his friend wondered what G. M. D. meant. He knew it did not mean a good many doctors, for T—K— had tried a dozen in vain. "I have it," said he, just hitting the nail on the head, "you mean Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery,' or Gold Medal Deserved, as my friend J—S— always dubs it." Sold by druggists.

We accidentally overheard the following dialogue on the streets yesterday:

Jones—Smith, why don't you stop that disgusting hawking and spitting?

Smith—How can I? You know I am a martyr to catarrh.

J.—Do as I did. I had the disease in its worst form but I am well now.

S.—What did you do for it?

J.—I used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It cured me and it will cure you.

S.—I've heard of it, and by Jove, I'll try it.

J.—Do so. You'll find it at all the drug stores in town.

The usual majority is promised the Democratic ticket in Fleming County.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Smith will be again nominated for secretary of state.

He Says He Don't Drink.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 30.—In the course of the performance last night of a border drama at the museum here Capt. Jack Crawford, the noted post scout who was in a box—became greatly excited, and leaping on to the stage, he struck two of the stage Indians heavy blows in the face, knocking them headlong, blackening an eye of one and cutting open the lips of the other. Crawford was quieted down after a time and he apologized, saying that he could not bear to see his old time friend Wild Bill pressed hard by savages, even on the mimic stage. He said, further, that he does not drink intoxicating beverages.

NATURAL GAS

Struck at a Depth of Three Hundred and Fifty Feet.

Affording a Flame Seven Feet High. Indications are Strong for a Good Gas Field.

The contractors began boring for gas last week on the property of Messrs. Ball and Shackelford, near the old race track, in Chester. Work has been prosecuted vigorously ever since, with the exception of a day or so, when a delay was caused by a break in the machinery.

At a depth of three hundred and fifty feet, a vein of gas was struck this morning about 9 o'clock. When lighted the flame burned to the height of seven feet from the mouth of the casing.

The vein was struck in the rock known as the Trenton limestone, and has the characteristic petroleum order of a good quality of natural gas.

The driller, who has sunk a number of wells, considers the indications quite favorable for good gas field.

Not Bad Marksmanship.

A Flemingsburg special to the Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The excuse that is offered, or, rather, the reason assigned for the bad marksmanship displayed by the Sheriff's posse in the recent killing of the Tollivers at Morehead is that those who escaped did so by the order of the Sheriff and the leaders of the Vigilantes, because they were wanted alive for their evidence at trials which will be held. In fact, the order was positive that under no circumstances must they be injured; and so they escaped for the time. This is authentic, and comes from a man who knows exactly what he is talking about."

The River Gives Up Its Dead.

The remains of James Arthur Carr, the nine-year-old lad who was drowned Tuesday evening, were found early this morning at the elevator landing, where the accident happened. Harvey Lyons and other employees of Owens, Parker & Co. were moving some coal barges at the time, when the dead body suddenly came to the surface. It was taken from the water by the men, who at once summoned Coroner M. T. Cockrell. An inquest was held, and the jury's verdict was in accordance with the facts as heretofore set forth.

The remains were taken charge of by Myall & Shackelford and the burial will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Marvin—Leggett.

The marriage of Gwynne L. Marvin and Miss Elizabeth F. T. Leggett was solemnized yesterday at high noon in the M. E. Church at Ripley, the pastor, Rev. A. D. Raleigh, speaking the words that made the happy twain one. The church, which had been handsomely decorated for the occasion, was crowded by the friends of the couple. Miss Field Leggett, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Chambers Baird acted as the groom's "best man." Messrs. J. Frank Ellis, of this city, Dr. George Tyler, of Russellville, O., and Elmer Galbraith and Charlie Newcomb, of Ripley, acted as ushers. After the ceremony, the guests repaired to the home of the bride where an elegant wedding breakfast was served. Later the couple left by the St. Lawrence for Chicago and Detroit, where the honeymoon will be spent.

The groom is one of Aberdeen's most prominent young merchants, while the bride is one of Ripley's loveliest daughters.

Among the guests present were: Mrs. Parker Bradford and daughters Misses May and Carrie, of this county; Miss Calvert, Lexington; Miss Jennie Manker, Peoria, Ill.; Miss Marvin and Mrs. Simmons, of Aberdeen; and Dr. and Mrs. George Tyler, of Russellville.

Among the many handsome wedding presents, were an elegant Steinway grand piano, from the groom to the bride, and a solid silver tea service from Mr. Parker Bradford.

THERE has been a number of reports of late that Winfield Buckler, who has been in the asylum at Lexington for the past year, was much better. A correspondent of the Louisville Commercial writes that the Superintendent says this is not true. The only change in Buckler's condition was that he had become somewhat quieter, but if he were excited in the least he would again become a raving maniac. The Superintendent said that it now took a suit of clothes a day to run him, as he would tear them into shreds at night.

MRS. NATHAN GENTRY, her son, N. B. Gentry, and the latter's wife and some other parties became involved in a family quarrel at Richmond, Ky., one day this week, at the house of Mrs. Catharine Cusick. Such an excitement followed that Mrs. Cusick fell prostrated and died in a few minutes. She was probably eighty years old. IRISH NATIONAL LEAGUE.

ITS SUPPRESSION THE OBJECT OF THE CRIMES BILL.

An Organization to Which Ireland Owes a Debt of Gratitude Which She Cannot Well Repay—Preparing to Resist Coercion Measures—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 30.—As the time of the inevitable passage and remorseless enforcement of the crimes bill draws near, the Irish National League, against which organization the bill is chiefly aimed and whose suppression is really the foundation stone upon which the act rests, is actively engaged in devising and executing means of averting the crushing weight of coercion, which threatens its life, and seeking not only to survive the coming storm, but to continue its work during the prevalence of the dread visitation.

To the National League more than to any other organization, party, faction or individual, Ireland owes a debt of gratitude greater than in her present helpless condition she can well pay, and to the same fearless, tireless and noble-hearted band of patriots the English government owes an accumulation of hatred and injustice, born of its humiliation under the repeated triumphs of the quick-witted leaguers over the phlegmatic British officials.

When the coercion bill was introduced in the house of commons Thomas Sexton was reported to have said that if the National League were suppressed in Ireland it would remove its headquarters to England, out of the jurisdiction of the coercion act, and continue its work under the shadow of the palace of Westminster. Little attention was paid to the remark at the time, if indeed the gentleman to whom it was ascribed ever uttered it, but the idea quoted as his is likely to be carried out on a large scale. Calmly and quietly but determinedly and surely agents of the league are establishing their branches throughout England, and with the same absence of anything indicating the purpose of its leaders, but with special reference to permanency of location the organization is entrenching itself in various parts of Ireland where discovery by the minions of the law will be next to impossible, and at the same time extremely unpleasant, if not positively unhealthy for the minion that accidentally stumbles over one of the retreats.

Though, as it may be again said, Ireland owes much to the National League, there has never been a time since that organization came forth from the Land League that its maintenance, its absolute integrity and its peculiar performance of its particular function has been so necessary to the peasantry of Erin as now, when a law for its extermination is in the last stages of legislative incubation. When the men who have for years been persecuted, ostensibly because they were Catholics, find themselves if not altogether distrusted and on the eve of being deserted by their spiritual head, at least in danger of being used to further the temporal interests of the church at the expense of their liberty they naturally cling to the friend whose every act has been in their behalf and in furtherance of the end of their freedom.

To attempt to prevent the self-enforcement of this law of human nature would be as futile as to endeavor to convince the Tory government that it isn't as speedily as its thick skull will permit butting out its brains against the wall of popular disfavor. The people of Ireland are aware of the fact that without the National League they haven't a friend in the world upon whom to rely for assistance in their dire extremity, and the men who compose that body, and who are themselves of the people, have shown by the continued warfare against injustice and oppression that has marked the existence of the League, that they may be depended upon to fight coercion as desperately as they have fought everything in the past, whether legalized or not, that has threatened Irishmen with disaster to their homes, with the alternative of imprisonment or flight as the penalty of defending them. The National League will not be suppressed.
